

Principal's Fund

City & Guilds of London Art School is an independent charitable trust specialising in Higher Education in the fields of Conservation, Fine Art and Historic Carving run entirely on a not-for-profit basis. We are committed to:

Ensuring very high levels of contact time between our 230 students and our teaching staff of 80+ practising artists and other expert professionals

Operating specialist resources and workshops to support hands-on skill development including drawing, woodworking, casting, etching and glass-working

Collaborating with leading institutions and organisations, providing students with rare insights and experiences of professions and careers in the Arts and Heritage Sector

Providing dedicated work space for students, supporting a daily commitment to practice and 'learning through making'

The Art School fosters a unique creative community where traditional craft and hand skills are taught alongside scientific analysis and innovative contemporary approaches. Established in 1854 we have never received direct funding from government.

The Principal's Fund supports our mission, helping to ensure that those with promise and dedication can thrive on our courses. Gifts to the Principal's Fund are directed towards the areas of greatest need, including student hardship, developments and initiatives. This means that your support has a direct and tangible impact.

Donations of all sizes make a difference. Depending on need, your support could help in the following areas:

Facilitating access and participation initiatives such as specialist dyslexia tutoring and support for students with disabilities

Providing hardship funding for students facing exceptional circumstances that require financial assistance

Enhancing the resources available in our Library and specialist workshops

Supporting Material Matters, a programme of visiting expert practitioner talks, demonstrations, symposia and public presentations

If you prefer, you can choose to allocate your gift towards the area of most interest to you. Please let us know.
